Registration Process:

1. Registration must be received on or before March 27, 2015. Applications received after the deadline will be placed on a waiting list, and will be notified if space becomes available. Make checks payable to City of Wylie. There is $25 charge for returned checks.
2. All artists must submit completed applications/portfolio electronically to festival@wylietexas.gov. Applications/portfolios will be held until payment is received. The portfolio should include photographs and pricing of artwork. Submission of this application does not guarantee acceptance. Art organizations sponsoring multiple artists will be responsible for submission of all artist included in their sponsorship package.
3. Applications will be processed in the order they are received. Artists will be selected by a panel and will be notified in writing. Payment will be returned if artist is not selected.
4. All spaces are outdoors. All equipment and merchandise must fit into the booth space and solicitation outside the space is prohibited. Artists requiring more than one space must pay for additional spaces.
5. All artists must provide their own canopy, tables, chairs and displays.
6. No hook-ups will be provided for motor homes or travel trailers at the festival site.
7. Products offered must be original fine art and family appropriate.
8. Artists may only sell art representative of the samplings submitted. The City reserves the right to request removal of any items deemed to be illegal or in poor taste.

9. Artists shall not sublet or assign this contract to any other person, or any of the privileges conveyed herein.
10. Artists must remain open from 9 am - 9 pm.
11. The City reserves the right to cancel any artist and the terms of this agreement at any time for any reason, without penalty to the City of Wylie. All decisions made by the City of Wylie shall be final.

Festival Policies

No Refunds: The City of Wylie cannot guarantee any artist a certain number of customers, nor do we promise any type of profit. No refunds due to inclement weather. As with any festival, show, or event, the artist makes the decision to participate on their own. Should the event be postponed or canceled for an Act of God, public safety, welfare or for any reason whatsoever, artist hereby releases and forever discharges the City of Wylie, its officers, employees and agents from any and all liability and claims for damages which result from such postponement or cancellation.

Security: Security will be provided during the event; however, merchandise left overnight is at the owner's risk and responsibility. The City of Wylie assumes no responsibility for any property placed on the premises, and is released from any liabilities for any loss, injury or damage to person or property that are sustained by reason of the occupancy of the event site under this contract. All watchmen or other protective service desired by artists must be arranged for by prior special agreement with the representative of the City of Wylie.

Liabilities: Artists shall indemnify the City of Wylie, its officers, employees and agents against, and hold the City of Wylie, its officers, employees, and agents harmless from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, liability, lawsuits, judgments, damages, injuries, cost or expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, or injury to person or property or death of any person resulting from or based upon, in whole or in part, any act performed or omission in the performance of this contract by artist, its agents, officers and employees. This indemnity is intended to protect the City of Wylie, its agents, officers and employees from the consequences of their own negligence. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this contract.

Artist hereby releases the City of Wylie from any actions for any loss or damage sustained by reason of any defect of any part of the water supply system, the sewage and drainage system, the gas system, electrical apparatus or wiring on the event site or any other premises or bandstand, and for any loss or damage resulting from fire, theft, water, tornado, rain, snow, strikes, civil commotion or riot, or otherwise caused by gross negligence of the City of Wylie.
